

Terms and Conditions – Budapest Card 2016

Budapest Card is a season ticket for tourists, the only official city card issued by Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd.. If you book a card via e-mail, you will receive a voucher and an invoice via e-mail. In exchange for the voucher, you can take over your purchased card at the B2Sky Travel central office in pedestrian street of Budapest (H-1056, Váci utca 81.). The invoice will include the name and address given during the booking, modification after invoicing is not possible. You may not modify or cancel your booking of Budapest Card afterwards. Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd. shall not reimburse the price of the cards not taken over or the cards that were taken over but remained unused, and shall not replace such cards by new cards for the following year. Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd. shall not reimburse the price of stolen or lost cards. The Budapest Card is valid from 1st of April of a given year until 31st of March in the next year. According to that, the online vouchers can be exchanged to Budapest Card between 1st of April of a given year until 31st of March in the next year. Budapest Card vouchers may only be exchanged for the actual cards in the B2Sky Travel office. Cards purchased online may only be issued in return for a voucher that certifies prior booking.

The card is booked for a particular person and it may not be transferred, so you are kindly requested to present your passport or identity card upon reception. Having taken over the card, the owner must write the beginning date of the validity period on the card and has to sign it afterwards. Overwritten, corrected or illegible cards may not be used, and Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd shall not replace them. Budapest Card is valid for a particular person. The services may be used by the card owners.

Tourism Office of Budapest shall not assume responsibility for accidents or damages occurring in the event of using the card. The brochure of the card – Budapest Guide – contains a detailed description of how to use Budapest Card, as well as the list of service providers accepting the card in the given year. After the editing process is closed, Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd shall not take responsibility for any changes occurring in the brochure or on the website operated by Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd.

Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre Non-profit Ltd shall not assume responsibility for any information given by other data providers in relation to Budapest Card.

